

Guest Psalmist

Chris House is a multi-instrumentalist, songwriter, worship leader, producer native of Hampton, Virginia. He is married to Shanicka Vail House. They are the proud parents of two beautiful children Raegan and Rhian House.

As a 2002 Music Education graduate of Hampton University, he currently serves as Creative Arts Director and Worship Leader at The City Life Church, a multicultural church in Newport News, Virginia. He is a member of the International Worship Team for the Full Gospel Baptist Church Fellowship. As a Stellar Award winning songwriter, he's written songs for Vashawn Mitchell, Earl Bynum and the Mount Unity Choir, Bishop Rudolph McKissick, and The Full Gospel Baptist Church Mass Choir. In 2014 Chris released his debut album Sing Jesus- Live which debuted at #34 on the Billboard can be found on all digital music outlets. Not only is Chris a passionate worshiper and musician, he is also a strong advocate for diversity in the body of Christ and social justice equality. When diversity is celebrated, harmony is established, and unity is fulfilled! Worship is a bridge that unifies us....Let's meet on the bridge!

QUADRENNIAL THEME

"The Freedom Church: Refocusing on Our Purpose, Reviewing Our Practices, Retooling Our People, Reaching Our Potential"